Corporate:

The business and compliance attorneys offer valuable counsel through an array of corporate business issues such as China in-bound and out-bound investment; market entry strategies; mergers and acquisitions; antitrust; government relations; and trade and regulatory matters. Additionally, our attorneys focus on Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and compliance issues.

Intellectual Property:

The intellectual property practice is diverse with an outstanding record of helping clients grow and protect innovative businesses, products and brands. Utilizing the firm's global footprint, the Shanghai office has access to more than 135 patent attorneys and staff with advanced degrees in various scientific or engineering disciplines. The firm's intellectual property services include IP portfolio strategy and management, patent litigation, patent prosecution, and trademark and copyright counsel and litigation.
